

The Racket Factory

in concert

Thursday, May 22

7:00pm

Farmington Grange

Bridge Street (Route 43), West Farmington

$8 at the door

Coffee and refreshments provided.

All proceeds to benefit the Grange

The Racket Factory is a local group with decades of musical experience playing traditional acoustic music for dances and listening. Band members include Eric Johnson on guitar; Mark Rains on Bass; and Margaret Cox, Cynthia Phinney and Hank Washburn on fiddles. They all also sing. Their repertoire consists of contemporary and traditional songs from a variety of genres, as well as a solid collection of New England fiddle music rooted in Celtic, French Canadian and Old Time traditions.

Additional information 778-2932